

British Horseball Association Coaching

How do I become a BHA Qualified Coach? – You must hold the following qualifications:

- 3 day at work First Aid course OR British Horse Society 2-Day Initial First Aid Course qualification
- DBS Check
- British Horse Society approved Safeguarding course qualification
- British Horseball Association Coach Membership (if you are already joined as a full senior player you do not need to join as a coach as well!)
- British Horseball Association Coaching course qualification OR UKCC Level 1 (or above) (course which was taken with Dave Pettifor, no other UKCC course is accepted.)

Proof of certificate for each of the above points will be required. Once you have completed each of the above points you must send a proof of certificate for each qualification to BHA Safeguarding and H&S Officer Julia Oldbury Davies – j.oldburydaviesbha@gmail.com

Further useful information:

- Where can I get a DBS check?

You can get an Enhanced DBS check through Julia you must email her j.oldburydaviesbha@gmail.com the following information:

1. Copy of your passport
2. Copy of Driving license
3. Copy of a Bank statement dated in the last 3 months (must show address, date and bank)
4. National Insurance number
5. Address or addresses for the last 6 years
6. Date moved into the addresses
7. Telephone number
8. Mobile number

Julia will process a check and provide you with a certificate for this. Please email Julia to check the price. You can also get Enhanced DBS checks through many links online, prices may vary. If you do choose to do one online, or already have one through your work or something similar then just email Julia a copy of this.

- Where can I get my First Aid Qualification?

Your First Aid Qualification must be either First Aid 3-Day at work Qualification OR BHS 2-Day Initial First Aid Qualification.

The 3-day at work course you can find many options online, or you may be able to do this through your current employer. Prices vary here.

The British Horseball Association run First Aid 3-day at work courses which are also relevant to Equine sport and in particular, Horseball. Please keep an eye on the website for future course dates – www.britishhorseball.co.uk the price of these vary but approximately £120.

The British Horse Society offers a 2-Day Initial First Aid Course which is also a recognised qualification to become a BHA Qualified Coach. You can find numerous dates and venues across the UK where you can do this course online here (scroll down to next courses) - <http://www.bhs.org.uk/education/training-courses/find-training-courses/courses/first-aid> the price of this is £111.

- Where can I take a British Horse Society Approved Safeguarding course?

Safeguarding courses are available to book online with the BHS, they offer various dates and venues across the UK, you can book here (scroll down to next courses) -

<http://www.bhs.org.uk/education/training-courses/find-training-courses/courses/safeguarding-and-protecting-children> the price of this is £35.50

You can also do the same course with the Pony Club -

http://www.pcuk.org/index.php/safeguarding/safeguarding_and_protecting_children_workshops/safeguarding_workshops/ the price of this is £20.

If you need to RENEW your safeguarding and you have completed a BHS face to face course AFTER July 2011 you are eligible for the online course, the price of this is £27.90 and you can do this here:

<http://www.childprotectioncompany.com/CPC/>

Or again you can do this with the Pony Club and the price is £20 -

http://www.pcuk.org/index.php/safeguarding/safeguarding_and_protecting_children_workshops/online_safeguarding_courses/

- Does my UKCC Course count?

If you were on the UKCC Course with Dave Pettifor which was specifically tailored to Horseball then yes; you must also produce proof of completing this course (at least Level 1). Any other UKCC qualification will not count.

- Where can I do the BHA Coaching course?

The BHA Coaching courses are held at Arkley Lane Stables in North London. The price is approximately £35. Please keep an eye on the website for future course dates – www.britishhorseball.co.uk.

If you already have some or all of the above qualifications then please send proof of certificates to Julia Oldbury Davies at j.oldburydaviesbha@gmail.com – Julia will be keeping a log of all BHA Qualified Coaches. Julia will also be able to advise if your current qualification is valid for becoming a BHA Qualified Coach.

If you have ANY questions whatsoever on ANY of the above then contact Jenny Hughes directly at gbhorseballevts@hotmail.com